St. James's, May 28.

THE following Addreſſes of the General Aſſembly of the Church of Scotlaud having been tranſmitted to His Grace the Duke of Portland, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have by him been preſented to the King: Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Miniſters and Elders of the Church of Scotland, met in the General Aſſembly, beg Leave humbly to approach the Throne with our warmeſt Congratulations on the Marriage of His Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales with an amiable Princeſs of the illuſtrious Houſe of Brunſwick; an Houſe from which has ſprung a Race of Kings, under whoſe auſpicious Government our National Liberty and Proſperity have been ſecured and encreaſed.

This important Event muſt at any Time have been intereſting to us, as it flatters us with the pleaſing Hope of having your Majeſty's Royal Line extended down to the lateſt Poſterity, and as it contributes to your domeſtick Happineſs; but eſpecially, in the preſent Period, have we ſeen, with the moſt unfeigned Joy, your Majeſty's paternal Wiſhes ſo happily fulfilled by this auſpicious Union, which, having diffuſed ſuch univerſal Satisfaction through the whole Empire, gives your Majeſty at once the ampleſt Proof that you poſſeſs, unimpaired, the warmeſt Affection of your Subjects, and the ſtrongeſt Security that your Royal Family ſhall ever retain it.

But while we contemplate with Pleaſure the encreaſed Stability of your Majeſty's Throne, and the internal Happineſs of your People, we cannot turn our Eyes on the preſent diſtracted State of Europe without the moſt anxious Solicitude, nor behold the vigorous Exertions of this Nation under your Majeſty's Direction, without praying fervently, as the Servants of the God of Peace, that he may be pleaſed to bleſs with full and ſpeedy Succeſs the Energy of your Majeſty's Counſels and Arms, for the Reſtoration of Publick Tranquillity; entertaining full Confidence in your Majeſty's Wiſdom that no favourable Opportunity ſhall be loſt in procuring the Bleſſings of a ſafe, honourable and laſting Peace.

That Almighty God may ever have your Majeſty under his peculiar Care; that you may reign long and happily over a free and loyal People; that he may bleſs our gracious Queen, and all the Royal Family; that he may bleſs their Royal Highneſſes the Prince and Princeſs of Wales with all domeſtick Felicity, and preſerve them in the Paths of Religion and Virtue; and that a Race of Kings deſcended from them may ſway the Sceptre of theſe Lands to the lateſt Ages, are the earneſt Prayers of,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

Your Majeſty's moſt faithful, moſt obedient, and moſt loyal Subjects,

The Miniſters and Elders met in this National Aſſembly of the Church of Scotland.

Signed in our Name, in our Preſence, and at our Appointment, by James Meek, Moderator.

Edinburgh, May 23, 1795.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

THE gracious Letter with which your Majeſty has been pleaſed to honour this Meeting of the General Aſſembly of the Church of Scotland was received with profound Reſpect and Gratitude.

It yields us the higheſt Satisfaction that our Conduct in diſcharging the important Truſts which have been repoſed in us has received your Majeſty's Approbation, and we rely with entire Confidence on your unalterable Reſolution to maintain our National Church in the full and free Enjoyment of all her Rights and Privileges.

The hereditary and warm Attachment of the Earl of Leven to the Intereſts of Religion and good Government, his affectionate Regard to the Church of Scotland,

Scotland, his amiable Character, and exemplary Conduct in private Life, together with his approved Experience and Knowledge in the Duties of the high Office with which he is entruſted, render the Re-Appointment of him to repreſent your Majeſty's Royal Perſon a moſt acceptable Mark of Favour to this Aſſembly.

Your Majeſty's Royal Donation for the Propagation of Religion in the Highlands and Iſlands of Scotland we receive as a repeated Proof of your paternal Attention to the ſpiritual as well as to the temporal Intereſts of your Subjects; and it ſhall be our Endeavour, by a wiſe and faithful Application of it, to promote the pious and benevolent Purpoſe for which it was beſtowed.

Firmly convinced as we are of the indiſſoluble Connection which muſt ever ſubſiſt between the temporal Proſperity of a People and their Adherence to the Practice of Religion and Virtue, we ſhall exert our moſt ſtrenuous Endeavours to maintain and improve that happy Union, by impreſſing a juſt Senſe of the bleſſed Effects of it upon the Minds of all thoſe who are committed to our Care: And we truſt that the great Objects of our Deliberations will upon all Occaſions animate us to perſevere with increaſing Zeal and Diligence in the Diſcharge of our Duty, upon which they reflect ſo much Dignity. While we rejoice in the Perſuaſion that nothing is ever dearer to your Majeſty, or nearer to your Heart, than the Happineſs of your People, we have at the ſame Time the Satisfaction of knowing that no Services can ever be more acceptable to you, or can more effectually ſecure to us the Continuance of your Royal Approbation.

Your Majeſty's Reliance on the Wiſdom and Diſcretion of this Church is a powerful Incitement to us to keep conſtantly before us the important Ends of our Meeting, and an Encouragement to carry on all our Deliberations with that Spirit of Moderation and Unanimity, which is ſo becoming the Character we bear, and ſo well calculated to bring this preſent Meeting of the General Aſſembly to a happy and ſatisfactory Concluſion.

That Almighty God, the Father of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, may protect your Majeſty's Perſon, direct your Counſels, and proſper your Adminiſtration; that he may bleſs our gracious Queen, their Royal Highneſſes the Prince and Princeſs of Wales, and all the Royal Family; and that, after reigning long with Wiſdom and Felicity over a free, happy and grateful People, you may receive that Crown of Righteouſneſs which fadeth not away, are the earneſt Prayers of,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

Your Majeſty's moſt faithful, moſt obedient, and moſt loyal Subjects,

The Miniſters and Elders, met in this National Aſſembly of the Church of Scotland.

That your Majeſty may long continue to reign over a free, loyal and proſperous People is our moſt ardent Prayer; a People not inſenſible to their own Happineſs, and ever diſpoſed to regard, with a partial Attachment, thoſe of their Princes who are ſtudious of the true Intereſts, and who reſpect the Conſtitution of their Country.

[Preſented by Samuel Edwards, Eſq; Sheriff.]

To His Royal Highneſs the PRINCE of WALES.

May it pleaſe your Royal Highneſs,

THE Freeholders, Juſtices of the Peace and Commiſſioners of the Land-Tax of the County of Dumfries, met here this Day, beg Leave to offer to your Royal Highneſs our ſincere Congratulations upon your late Nuptials with her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Caroline of Brunſwick, and to aſſure your Royal Highneſs, that your Alliance with a Princeſs illuſtrious by her Birth, and poſſeſſing every other Quality that can adorn the high Station to which

May this auſpicious Union produce to your Royal Highneſs and your amiable Conſort every Degree of Happineſs; and may you long live, following the great Pattern of your Royal Father, our beloved Sovereign, to be a Bleſſing to the People, and an Example of every Virtue to all thoſe whom Providence may call upon you to govern.

To His Royal Highneſs the PRINCE of WALES.

SIR,

WE, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Juſtices of the Peace, and Commiſſioners of Supply of the County of Lanark, beg Leave to approach your Royal Highneſs with thoſe Sentiments of Attachment and Reſpect which we are perſuaded you will ever obtain and deſerve from the free Suffrage of the People.

On the late auſpicious Event of your Nuptials, permit us to offer our unfeigned Congratulations. While we cannot but feel a ſenſible Intereſt in an Occurrence which regards the Increaſe of your domeſtic Enjoyments, we moſt ſincerely rejoice that it alſo enlarges the Proſpect and promiſes the Happineſs to theſe Kingdoms of an ample Line of Princes of the Houſe of Brunſwick.

In a Juncture like the preſent, ſo big with Events involving the Stability of the Conſtitution of every Nation of Europe, and in addreſſing a Prince ſo warmly attached as your Royal Highneſs to that of his own Country, we cannot help expreſſing our deep Senſe of the numerous and unequalled Bleſſings we enjoy under it's mild Influence. Of other Nations, while ſome groan under Feudal Tyranny, and ſome are deſolated by Republican Oppreſſion, may we, from their Example, derive to ourſelves ſo id Grounds for Contentment as well as Leſſons of Wiſdom. Anxions to protect the glorious Fabric of the Britiſh Conſtitution from the raſh Hand of Innovation, no leſs than the ſilent Inroads of Corruption and Decay, may we happily maintain it in it's genuine Spirit, and tranſmit it, as their moſt valuable Inheritance, to a late Poſterity.

Senſible of the Bleſſings we have enjoyed under the auſpicious Reign of your Royal Father, and having the moſt perfect Reliance that your Royal Highneſs inherits the ſame mild and conſtitutional Principles, which, under Providence, have, during His Majeſty's Reign, advanced this Nation to it's preſent State of Proſperity, we cannot contemplate an Union, which promiſes to extend thoſe Bleſſings to Poſterity, without feeling the moſt lively Emotions of Joy.

That your Royal Highneſs may continue to poſſeſs the Affections of a free, brave and loyal People, and long enjoy an equal Portion of domeſtic Happineſs which the Nation has, with Admiration, witneſſed in our moſt gracious Sovereign and his beloved Queen, is our ardent Wiſh.

It is peculiarly gratifying to this Nation that your Royal Highneſs has fixed your Affections and Choice upon a Princeſs of that illuſtrious Family. This Country has long flouriſhed under the auſpicious Government of Kings deſcended from the Houſe of Brunſwick, whoſe uniform Attachment to the Cauſe of true Liberty, and ſacred Regard for the Principles of our moſt excellent Conſtitution, muſt for ever render them dear to Britons.

That your Royal Highneſs, and your auguſt Conſort, may long enjoy uninterrupted domeſtick Felicity is the moſt fervent Wiſh of our Hearts; and if, in the Courſe of Events, the Sceptre of theſe Realms ſhall be entruſted to your Care, moſt ſincerely do we hope that you may, during a proſperous Reign, be bleſſed, as your Royal Father has uniformly been, with the unfeigned Love and ſteady Attachment of all Ranks of People in the Dominions over which your Royal Highneſs will be called to preſide.

WHereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that about Eight o'Clock on the Morning of the 12th Ultimo, a most daring Mob, armed with Clubs and Axes, assembled at Bellemarsh, near Chudleigh, in the County of Devon, an Estate of James Templer, Esq; and forcibly entered a Mill thereon, and pulled down and destroyed a great Part of the Machinery of the said Mill, and at the same Time most inhumanly beat and wounded James Ball, the Tenant of the said Premises; and that upon the 15th Ultimo, nother Mob assembled at Ilsington, near the said Place, armed with various Weapons, and compelled the Peace Officers, who were furnished with a proper Warrant for the Apprehension of John Mortimer, who, together with Three other Persons already apprehended, appeared to be the principal Leaders of the said Insurgents, to retire.

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Promoters and Instigators of the said Riots, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one or more of them (except the Persons now actually in Custody) who shall discover where the abovementioned John Mortimer is now concealed, or be otherwise instrumental in apprehending and bringing him to Justice.

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Person or Persons concerned in writing and dispersing the said Hand-Bills, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of them (except the Person who actually wrote the same) who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HAIR POWDER TAX.

Stamp-Office, Somerſet-Place, May 5, 1795.

HIS Majeſty's Commiſſioners for managing the Stamp Duties, do, in purſuance of "An Act for granting to His Majeſty a Duty on Certificates iſſued for uſing Hair Powder," which commences on the 6th Day of May inſtant, hereby give Notice to every Perſon uſing or wearing Hair Powder, that they have appointed the following Offices or Places for granting ſuch Certificates, viz.

The Head Office in Somerſet-Place, for Perſons reſiding in the Pariſh of St. Mary-le-Strand, St. Clement Danes, St. Paul, Covent-Garden, St. Giles in the Fields, St. George, Bloomſbury, the Liberty of the Rolls, Lincoln's-Inn, and the Temple.

City Diſtrict, at No. 50, Lombard-Street, London, for Perſons reſiding within the City of London and the Liberty of St. Martin le Grand.

For the Diſtrict of the Tower Hamlets, Liberties and Precincts thereof, with Bethnal-Green, and Parts adjacent, at No. 35, Wellcloſe-Square.

For the Weſtminſter Diſtrict, including the Pariſh of St. Martin in the Fields, St. Margaret, St. John, St. James, St. Ann, Mary-le-Bone, St. George, Hanover-Square, and Paddington, at No. 3, Terrace, Spring-Garden, and No. 296, Oxford-Street, near Bond-Street.

For the Clerkenwell Diſtrict, the Office of the Clerk of the Peace for the County of Middleſex, at the Seſſions Houſe on Clerkenwell-Green, for Perſons reſiding in the Pariſhes of St. James and St. John, Clerkenwell, St. Luke, St. Leonard, Shoreditch, the Liberty of Glaſshouſe-Yard, St. Andrew, Holborn, St. George the Martyr, Queen-Square, St. Sepulchre, St. Pancras, and Iſlington.

And the Diſtributor of Stamps for the adjacent Counties of Middleſex, Eſſex, Kent and Surry, have appointed an Office in moſt of the Towns or large Villages, in thoſe Diſtricts, for the Convenience of Perſons reſiding beyond the ſaid Limits, and within Ten Miles of the Head-Office in Somerſet-Place.

N. B. On ſome viſible Part of the Front of thoſe Offices, the Words OFFICE APPOINTED TO GRANT HAIR POWDER CERTIFICATES will be painted for general Information.

At all which Offices or Places the Perſons applying for the ſaid Certificates will be furniſhed, gratis, with the proper printed Form of the Entry, required by the Act, to be filled up in Writing, and delivered in, previouſly to the iſſuing of any Certificates.

And the Commiſſioners do hereby give further Notice, that they have duly authorized the Head Diſtributors of Stamps in the different Counties of the Kingdom to execute this Buſineſs by themſelves and their Deputies: The former of whom the Commiſſioners have directed to publickly advertiſe, as early as poſſible, an Account of the Offices and Places in their reſpective Diſtricts, for the ſaid Purpoſe, in the Newſpapers uſually circulated in the Neighbourhood thereof, with the Names of the Deputies the ſaid Head Diſtributors have appointed to ſuperintend the ſame.

And, to prevent Miſtakes, the Commiſſioners think it right to apprize the Publick, that a Duty of ONE POUND AND ONE SHILLING ONLY is to be paid for each Certificate; which Sum will be expreſſed by a Stamp on each Certificate; and that NO MORE IS TO BE DEMANDED OF ANY PERSON upon taking out a Certificate for uſing or wearing of Hair Powder, upon any Pretence whatever, except where there are more than Two unmarried Daughters in a Family; in which Caſe a double Certificate, ſtamped with Two Stamps of One Pound One Shilling each, is required to be taken out.

Daily Attendance will be given at the above Offices, till further Notice, from Ten o'Clock till Three.

By Order of the Commiſſioners,

N. B. IN ADDITION TO THE ABOVE Notices, the Commiſſioners think it expedient to caution the Public, that every Perſon who, ſince the 5th Day of May inſtant, has worn Hair Powder, IS LIABLE TO THE DUTY OF ONE GUINEA, and required to take out a ſtamped Certificate of that Value; at the Expiration of one Month from that Day, a PENALTY of Twenty Pounds will attach upon every Perſon who ſhall uſe and wear Hair Powder, without taking out a Certificate for the ſame; and that if Informations are then tendered againſt Offenders, the Commiſſioners cannot, conſiſtently with their Duty, refuſe to receive them, and to direct Proſecutions accordingly.

To prevent which, and that Perſons may be accommodated with the leaſt Inconvience and Delay, it is earneſtly recommended to ſuch as require Certificates, to provide themſelves therewith immediately, by applying at ſuch of the Offices above mentioned as are reſpectively appointed for Perſons reſiding within thoſe different Diſtricts; and if the Parties applying could make it convenient, previouſly to furniſh themſelves with the Forms of Entry, which are iſſued, gratis, at the ſaid Offices, and deliver them in properly filled up, it is preſumed that it would greatly facilitate the Buſineſs of taking out Certificates, by ſhortening the Time of Waiting, and preventing that Embarraſſment, which, from the numerous Applications that may be expected to be made for them towards the Cloſe of the Month, will otherwiſe unavoidably occur.

APPRENTICE DUTY INDEMNITY.

Stamp-Office, Somerſet-Place, May 16, 1795.

HIS Majeſty's Commiſſioners for Managing the Stamp Duties do hereby give Notice, That by a Clauſe in an Act of the preſent Seſſion of Parliament, it is enacted, for the Relief of all Persons who have omitted to pay the several Rates and Duties, or any Part thereof, upon Monies given paid or contracted for, with Clerks, Apprentices or Servants, and also who have omitted to insert and write in Words at Length in Indentures or other Writings relating to the Service of any Clerk, Apprentice or Servant, the full Sum or Sums of Money, or any Part thereof, received or contracted for, with or in relation to every such Clerk, Apprentice or Servant, that, upon Payment of double the Rates and Duties upon the Monies, or such Part of the Monies, so omitted or neglected to be paid, and also so omitted to be inserted and written in such Indenture or Writing, on or before the 19th Day of December next, to the proper Officer, and tendering the same to be stamped at this Office, every such Indenture or other Writing shall be good and valid, and the Persons so offending be excused from any Penalty incurred by the Omission thereof; except those against whom any Prosecution shall be now depending.

Barnſley Poſt-Office, Feb. 21, 1795.

I am, your humble Servant, JANE BENT.

Miſs Bent, (Copy.)

I have great Reaſon to ſay the ORIENTAL VEGETABLE CORDIAL is a moſt valuable Medicine. I had the Misfortune to be put into a very damp Bed, which brought on a moſt violent Fever. The Doctor ſaid it was impoſſible I ſhould get better, as I had more Fever than any Perſon he ever had under his Care; he gave me Medicines which brought it to intermit: I had this Fever intermitting for Five Months, which reduced me to a very weak State; my Stomach was ſo relaxed and weak that my Victuals would not digeſt, and it was ſwelled as big as my Body and Stomach would contain, and my Paſſages quite locked up. I was obliged to have my Stomach fomented with a Bottle of Red Wine, Cloves, Cinnamon, Mace and Nutmegs boiling hot, and as one Flannel cooled I had another ready to put on; this was repeated ſo often that I was at the Point of Death. Upon ſeeing the Cordial in the Newſpaper, I ſent to you for a Bottle, and when my Complaint came on I took a Doſe of it, which took away the Pain and Swelling, opened my Paſſages, and gave me much Relief, ſo that I had no Occaſion to be fomented afterwards. Have kept a Bottle by me ever ſince to apply to in caſe of Need.

The Oriental Vegetable Cordial, ſo eminently diſtinguiſhed for curing Diſorders of the Stomach and Bowels, Bilious Fevers, Gout, &c. is ſold, Wholeſale and Retail, by Marſhall and Cornwell, the only Proprietors, No. 5, Bloomſbury-Square, London, in Bottles of 5s. and 10s. 6d. each, or the Quantity of Six Bottles in One for 1l. 3s. 6d. and retail by the general Venders of Medicine in England, Ireland, &c.
